

Finally NJ has a law that actually works and benefits people by adding some badly needed quality of life and the FCC is upset because it works too well? Do the public a favor and leave things alone!